

Department of Political Science Maitreyi College conducts International Conference on EU-India

New Delhi:

The Department of Political Science, Maitreyi College, successfully organized a one-day international conference in collaboration with Jean Monnet Module on India-European Union and the Global South: Asserting Identities and Social Change on 3rd May, 2024.

The Chief Patron of the Conference, Prof. Haritma Chopra welcomed a host of distinguished speakers from a multi-disciplinary background spanning academia, research, journalism and international media. These names include Professor Ajay K. Dubey, former rector Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU), Dr. Sheetal Sharma, Associate Professor, Centre for European Studies, JNU, Dr. Adrian Haack, Director Konrad-Adenauer-Foundation, India, Dr. Hussein Solomon, Senior Professor, University of Free State, South Africa, Dr. Shambhu Nath Dubey, Associate Professor ARSD College, Delhi University and Ms. Rami Niranjana Desai, Author & Columnist, India Foundation, Shri Uday Mahurkar, Former Central Information Commissioner and Professor Manish, Dean, School of International Studies, Central University Gujarat.

The speakers brought forth a plethora of thought provoking perspectives on how Global South and Europe represent not just a geographical region but a construct, a collective configuration of power and history. They opined on how Europe as a successful example of regionalism, and India as a civilizational democracy, can together lead the way in consolidating a multilateral global order. The sessions were followed by interactive Q and A sessions between the speakers, faculty members and more than 300 student participants. The Conference concluded with the vote of thanks by the Faculty Convenor, Dr. Subhkirti.
